Byrd Asked To Lunch By Johnson

Another Maneuver Aimed At Getting Tax Cut Approval

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson invited Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia to the White House for lunch today in another maneuver aimed at attempting to prod an $11-billion tax-cut bill through Congress.

Congressional sources reported that the chairman of the Sen-

Rep. Hays Bill Hits

Mail-Order Weapons

Rep. Wayne L. Hays of the 18th Congressional District Wednesday introduced a House bill to amend the Federal Firearms Act to stop the traffic in mail-order sales of weapons. The bill would bar mail-order sales by manufacturers or dealers to any person except another manufacturer or dealer, and would make all firearms non-mailable.

Rep. Hays said the bill would not affect exceptions for federal and state agencies and others contained in existing laws, and would not bar hunters from carrying weapons between states. "But it would make it impossible for any child or psychopath or anyone else from sending a money order and obtaining a gun in the mail," he said.

ate Finance Committee accepted the invitation for a luncheon conference.

The tax bill has passed the House, but Byrd's committee has shown no disposition to shove it along quickly, even though Johnson has given it top priority, just as President John F. Kennedy did.

Johnson has been using every opportunity to build up support for the bill—he called on labor and business leaders Wednesday to get behind it, as well as civil rights legislation.

Johnson told them it was languishing in the Finance Committee.

The President developed a reputation for getting results with a sort of personal, political diplomacy when he was Democratic leader of the Senate. The meeting with Byrd was along similar lines.

Johnson is appealing for help on the legislative program wherever he can find it.

"I am the President, but I can do nothing without the people," Johnson told the AFL-CIO Executive Committee Wednesday. "You represent the people. I need you and I want you by my side."

Less than an hour later he went before the Business Advisory Council with this pledge:

"This administration wants to help you. We are not pro-labor, or pro-business or pro-any special sector. We are pro what is best for America."

"I am the only President you have," Johnson told some 60 business leaders, Cabinet members and economic advisers. "If you would have me fail, then you fail, for the country fails." Johnson's speeches to union and industry leaders climaxed a busy White House day during which he also:

—Ordered tariff boosts of $23.9 million a year on five commodities in retaliation for increased import levies on U.S. poultry shipped to member nations of the European Economic Community.

—Announced he will confer Jan. 22 with Prime Minister Lester B. Pearson of Canada.

—Slipped out of the White House to spend a half hour at a Capitol luncheon of the Texas congressional delegation.

Costless despite the December chill, Johnson went to the White House rose garden to tell some 40 union leaders and government officials:

"The No. 1 priority today and tomorrow is more jobs and the goal of this administration is 75 million jobs in America." That would be an increase of 5 million jobs. Johnson set no target date for that goal.

Mother Of Oswald

Murder Of Son Another Burden In Her Life

PORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Perhaps one day in the year 2063, a school boy will open a history book and read of the Black Friday 100 years before on which President John Fitzgerald Kennedy was assassinated.

His study will bring him to Lee Harvey Oswald, a 24-year-old malcontent, who was accused of the assassination, but was murdered before being brought to trial.

If he goes deeper into the story, he may come across the name of Mrs. Marguerite Claverie Oswald.

Mrs. Oswald, a grey-haired, 56-year-old practical nurse, is the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald.

She, too, may become the subject of history because any inquiry into the nature of her son must turn to the person who played the greatest role in shaping him. That person is Mrs. Oswald.

"Any guilt I have for making him what he was, I will accept," she says. "But this is not for the assassination. I do not care what the FBI says, or what any special commission or court may say. He did not have a trial. He did not have his day in court. I heard him say on television, the same as millions of others heard him, 'I did not kill anyone. I did not kill anyone.' I know he never did it. I know my son."

The death of her son is another burden in a life littered with millstones, according to her recounting.

Life began for her in New Orleans July 19, 1907, born to Dora and John Claverie. At the age of 2, she was left motherless.

Little is known of the 22 years following, and she evades discussing her childhood and young womanhood. This, apparently, is something she is saving—along with many other facets of her life—for a projected book. But in 1929, she became the wife of a man named Pic.

"I was with Mr. Pic two and half years," she says, referring to him in formal language. "I became with child, but he didn't want children. I was three months pregnant when I left him. Mr. Pic voluntarily supported me and then the baby, John E. Pic, until the child was 18."

(John E. Pic is an Air Force sergeant of 14 years service now stationed at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Tex., where he is a laboratory technician at the 1,000-bed Wilford Hall Air Force Hospital.)

John Pic was born in January 1932, and about 18 months later his mother married Robert Edward Lee Oswald, a salesman for the Metropolitan Life Insurance Co.

"Mr. Oswald was named after Gen. Robert E. Lee," she explains. "It was the same name we gave our first child, Robert Edward Lee Oswald Jr." He was born in April 1934.

(Robert Edward Lee Oswald Jr. works for the Acme Brick Co. in Denton, Tex., where he lives with his family.)

"I became with child in early 1939," Mrs. Oswald says. "I was in my seventh month when Mr. Oswald died of coronary thrombosis."

The infant born Oct. 18, 1939, in New Orleans was named Lee Harvey Oswald.

"I was left penniless, with three boys," she says. (However, there was $3,500 in insurance.)

With the insurance money and some cash from the sale of her home, she was able to hold out, staying home to care for her kids. But then times turned hard for her, and when the war started she went to work. John Pic and Robert Oswald were

Taft Slated To Announce Senate Bid

Will Seek Young's Post; Senator To Ask Second Term

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Robert Taft Jr., R-Ohio, is expected to announce shortly his candidacy for the seat now held by Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio.

Those close to the situation also say that the 74-year-old Young, now serving his first six-year term, will clear the political air in Ohio by announcing within a matter of days that he will fight for a second term.

Supporters of Taft, 46, say he should announce his decision before Christmas.

His Washington office, meanwhile, announced he will hold a news conference Friday at the Sheraton - Cleveland Hotel in Cleveland.

Should Taft, son of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft and grandson of President William Howard Taft, decide to run for the Senate, he will not likely start any real campaigning until after the first of the year.

The assassination of President John F. Kennedy has put a damper on partisan political speeches, and Republican leaders have indicated they will hold off on these during the official 30-day mourning period.

Thus, if Taft gets into the Senate race, any campaigning would be in a low key for some time.

Although Young has kept his own counsel, there is every indication he also is going to make an early announcement to run to quiet speculation in the Ohio Democratic camp.

Kennedy had slowed talk that Marine Lt. Col. John H. Glenn Jr. might run for the Senate in Ohio when he said he expected that the astronaut would stay in the space program and he thought Young would seek reelection.

Rep. Oliver P. Bolton, R-Ohio, has been toying with the idea of running for the Senate. But he said that should Taft make the race, he will not contest him.

Taft said his decision on whether to try for the Senate will be announced from Ohio rather than Washington.

Taft speaks to the Kiwanis Club of Cleveland today and to the American Institute of Banking in Cleveland tonight.

Meant For Another

Stray Shot Kills Brazil Senator

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP) — A senator fired three shots at an opponent in Brazil's Senate chamber Wednesday and missed his target, but accidentally killed a third lawmaker.

The innocent victim was Sen. Jose Cairala, who died while undergoing surgery.

Cairala, from the western frontier state of Acre, was struck in the stomach by one bullet fired by Sen. Arnon de Melo.

Witnesses said De Melo whipped out a pistol and took aim from the speaker's platform at Sen. Silvestre Pericles.

Pericles, 67, a man known for his violent temper, had said he would shoot De Melo if he rose to speak. Both are from the northeast state of Alagoas, which has a reputation for stormy politics. Pericles, a member of the Senate since 1957, had opposed the election of De Melo, a freshman.

Sen. Joao Agripino told newsmen he grabbed Pericles, who was about to return the fire, and disarmed him.

"His revolver was fully loaded and hadn't been fired," Agripino said.

Both men were placed in military custody. The Senate appointed an investigating committee.

Senate sources said the feud was personal with no bearing on national politics. De Melo is a member of the conservative Christian Democratic party. Pericles belongs to President Joao Goulart's leftist Labor party.

Cairala had not been involved in the dispute, sources said.

Annual Meeting Closes

Buchanan Gets Full Term In Presidency Of USPA

J. Ross Buchanan of the Mayer China Co. at Beaver Falls was elected to a full term as president of the U. S. Pottery Association as the dinnerware manufacturers' organization concluded its 85th annual meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel.

Buchanan, formerly first vice president, had been serving in the presidency since the death in August of W. V. Oliver, president of the French-Saxon China Co. at Sebring.

Two other vice presidents were elevated one niche, following the USPA's custom, and a new third vice president and associate vice president were elected by the group.

Fred C. Henderson of the Royal China Co. at Sebring became first vice president and Robert M. Wells, a production control executive at the Homer Laughlin China Co., moved up to second vice president.

Henderson formerly was second vice president and Wells served previously as third vice president.

Everson Hall, vice president of the Hall China Co., was elected third vice president. Tom Campbell of Poland, Ohio, was named associate vice president, replacing Frank Jansma of Washington, Pa.

The association took no action to name a permanent secretary-treasurer. G. Stewart Thompson of East Liverpool will continue to act in the post until Dec. 31, when his resignation will become effective.

Thompson was named to the post following the death of Wilbert A. Betz of East Liverpool in March. Mr. Betz was serving in his 22nd year.

The election followed a report of the nominating committee headed by Arthur A. Wells of Homer Laughlin.

The USPA launched its meeting Tuesday. The opening day's session was devoted to committee reports. About 100 attended the annual reception and dinner Tuesday night.

The meeting closed with Wednesday's executive session and election. The date of the 1964 meeting will be set at the annual fall session of the Executive Board.

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Twenty-six Hungarian miners were killed in an explosion Wednesday night at a coal mine at Tatabanya, the Hungarian news agency MTI reported today.

Four other miners were injured.

The agency said the blast was a dampfire explosion. Tatabanya is a mining center 30 miles west of Budapest.

U.S. Colonel Released By Terrorists

Chenault Unhurt After Kidnaping By Pro-Communists

CARACAS, Venezuela (AP)—Col. James K. Chenault of Sherman, Tex., kidnaped by pro-Communist terrorists eight days ago, was released today.

Chenault, 47, was unhurt. He is deputy chief of the U. S. military mission in Venezuela.

The pro-Communist Armed Forces for National Liberation —FALN—kidnaped him in front of his home last Wednesday in an attempt to focus international headlines on its campaign to sabotage the presidential elections last Sunday.

The terrorist campaign was a failure. A record number of Venezuelans turned out to vote.

The FALN in telephone calls to Caracas newspapers had said it would not harm the American officer and would release him on Saturday, the day before the election. But it continued to hold him after the voting.

The U.S. Embassy said Chenault's kidnapers took him to a point a few blocks from his home and he walked from there. He reached home at 6 a.m. and telephoned embassy officials at once.

The FALN widened its campaign of violence to include British targets. Previously the terrorists had concentrated on U.S. interests and Venezuelan government installations.

The terrorists machine-gunned the residence of the British ambassador Wednesday and bombed a British automobile agency.

No one was injured in either attack. Ambassador Sir Douglas Bux was away when the attack occurred. The motor company's store front was shattered and several automobiles damaged.

The FALN gave no reason for its anti-British campaign, but it is believed to be a reprisal against Trinidad's release to Venezuelan authorities last week of six FALN members who hijacked a Venezuelan airliner and flew it to Port of Spain. Trinidad is a member of the British Commonwealth.

Meanwhile, the Supreme Electoral Council continued its slow count of ballots and said it expected to announce the official results of the presidential election on Sunday. All indications are that Raul Leoni, candidate of President Romulo Betancourt's Democratic Action party, will be the winner.

New Premier, Cabinet Take Oath In Italy

4-Party Coalition First In 16 Years; Strain On Alliance

ROME (AP) — Premier Aldo Moro and his new center-left Cabinet were sworn in today, giving Italy a four-party coalition government, including Socialists for the first time in 16 years.

It was Italy's 25th post-Fascist government.

As the premier took the oath before President Antonio Segni, there was speculation whether the uneasy alliance patched together with such difficulty could stand much strain.

Formation of the four-party coalition ended a political crisis that began in April when the ruling Christian Democrats suffered a setback and the Communists gained a million votes in the election of a new Parliament.

For 13 months before the election, Christian Democratic Premier Amintore Fanfani headed a center-left government supported by the Socialists, but the latter stayed out of the Cabinet. The election results strengthened a Socialist faction that wanted the party to return to its traditional alliance with Italy's big Communist party.

But, Socialist leader Pietro Nenni finally brought the party back into alliance with the Christian Democrats.

Other parties in the coalition are Giuseppe Saragat's Democratic Socialists and the Republicans. They were the other two members of Fanfani's coalition.

The new government is

Loot Reaches $225 In Theft And Burglary

Merchandise Taken From Wholesaler; Office Ransacked

Loot totaling $225 was taken in a theft at a downtown wholesale establishment and a burglary of a Klondyke lumber concern, police reported.

Martin Gluchow of St. Clair Ave., operator of the Tri-State Supply Co., 145 W. 6th St., told police merchandise valued at approximately $170.95 was stolen from his business place about 3 p.m. Wednesday.

The thief took an Arvin AM-FM-shortwave radio valued at $129; a Norelco electric razor worth $31.95 and a Scripto pen and pencil set valued at $10. Gluchow said. He reported the theft at 4:55 p.m.

Burglars obtained $55 in cash in ransacking a desk Tuesday night or Wednesday morning at the Adkins Lumber & Supply Co., Inc., 1802 Harvey Ave., officers said in a report filed at 11 a.m. yesterday.

Entry was gained by raising a lift door on the west side of the building and entering a warehouse.

Ransacking the office, the intruder took the $55 from a desk on the west side of the building. Drawers also were ransacked in the offices on the east side of the building, police said.

The loot was comprised of a lone $5 bill and the rest of the money was in change — 25-cent, 10-cent and 5-cent pieces — officers said.

The entry was timed between 5:10 p.m. Tuesday and 8 a.m. yesterday. The burglary apparatus

Road Bond Okayed For Ballot Spot

Aid To Dependent Children Of Jobless Approved By House

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Senate prepared to vote today on slicing up about $150 million for higher education, needy school districts, conservation and recreation, and other state functions.

Included in the bill is authority to spend about $100 million of the $250 million capital improvements bond issue approved by Ohio's voters a month ago.

State lawmakers, bent on completing this resumption of the regular session in a week if possible, put in a busy day Wednesday.

The Senate adopted, 29-3, and sent to the House a resolution to put a $500 million highway bond issue proposal on the May primary ballot.

The House passed, 111-15, an Aid to Dependent Children of the Unemployed bill which could face a tough time in the Senate.

Representatives also voted, again 111-15, to allow use of about $8 million a year from the state's $42 million to $44 million yearly liquor profits for technical institutes, research centers and the like.

There seems to be little likelihood that the $500 million highway bond issue will be stopped in the House on its way to the ballot for a statewide vote May 5.

Those who opposed it in Wednesday's floor vote were Sens. Frank W. King, D-Lucas, minority leader; Frazier Reams Jr., D-Lucas, and Ed Witmer, D-Stark. Sen. John J. Corrigan, D-Cuyahoga, was absent.

The remaining nine Democrats in the Senate joined Republicans in voting for the proposal, which is backed by the administration.

King asserted that, if voters okay the proposal and bonds are issued, the state debt will reach more than $1.1 billion.

It is proposed that the penny-a-gallon gasoline tax imposed a decade ago be continued and income from the axle-mile tax on big trucks be used to pay off the bonds, money from which would be used to speed up highway construction.

Action on an ADCU measure came swiftly after months of discussion.

The House - approved bill, which now comes under scrutiny of a Senate committee, would:

—Allow Ohio to participate in the program until June 30, 1965.

—Have each county pay half the non-federal share of the cost, provided that this, combined with cost of aid for the disabled, does not exceed amounts distributed to the county on the basis of assessed valuation from the .65-mill levy on public utilities property.

—Call for the rest of ADCU costs to be paid from state funds appropriated for poor relief. Benefits would range to a maximum of $30 a month.

—Define unemployment, and require work training and job placement, but not require an unemployed parent to accept a job that is available because of a labor dispute.

The liquor profits bill creates a Public Facilities Finance Commission which could issue the revenue bonds or notes.

Auto Injures Mother Of 6

A 37-year-old Chester area woman was hospitalized Wednesday afternoon with fractures of both legs received when struck by a car on Route 30 hill near Chester while delivering telephone directories.

Mrs. Jean Whittington of Johnstonville Rd. was in "fairly good" condition today at Rochester General Hospital where she was transferred after receiving emergency treatment at City Hospital.

Hancock County deputy sheriffs said the woman had just started to cross the highway about 2 p. m. after making a delivery at the Laurel Hill Motel when she was struck by a westbound station wagon driven by William A. Stevens, 40, of Eastlake, Ohio.

Deputies said the investigation indicated the accident was unavoidable, pointing out the view of both the pedestrian and driver was partially obstructed. They explained the mishap occurred on a curve and a truck parked on the same side of the highway as the motel obscured the view.

Mrs. Whittington, wife of Vernon Whittington, a Crucible Steel Co. employee, and mother of six children, is employed by the Directory Distributing Associates of St. Louis.

Increase Shown For Sales Taxes

Continuing increases in Columbiana County sales tax receipts were shown today in a report issued at Columbus by State Treasurer John D. Herbert.

The receipts stand at $526,986 since the start of the fiscal year July 1, up $41,196 from the $485,789 listed at the same time last year. In the two-week period ending Nov. 30, the receipts were $49,339, off $13,555 from the $62,894 shown in the comparable time during 1962.

Taxes on auto sales in the county hit $29,606 in the two weeks ending Nov. 30, up $6,368 from the $23,238 listed at the same time in 1962. They stand at $291,533 for the fiscal year to date, an increase of $36,145 from the $255,388 listed at the same time in 1962.

Salem Man Conveyed To State Reformatory

LISBON — Ryan Voogla, 25, of Salem was taken to the Mansfield Reformatory today by Sheriff Russell J. VanFossan and Deputy Howard Gray to begin serving a 1-20-year sentence for forgery.

Voogla had received five years probation July 18 after he pleaded guilty to signing the name of Evald Totla to obtain merchandise at a store in Salem. He was cited and sentenced by Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp when he failed to make reimbursement as ordered by the court.

Sheriff VanFossan and Deputy Gray will then go to Lima State Hospital and return Dennis Leon Gillispie of New Cumberland R. D. 2, who pleaded guilty to statutory rape. He was sent to Lima for examination and report before sentencing.

Rep. Wetzel Credited With Saving Aid Bill

LISBON — An effort to repeal the 100-year-old Veterans Relief Act was thwarted by Rep. Clarence L. Wetzel at a hearing before the House Welfare Committee in Columbus this week, according to Atty. Howard Cole of Lisbon, VFW representative.

A provision in the file for Aid to Dependent Children of Unemployed, commonly called ADCU, which would have destroyed soldiers' relief, was discovered by the Columbiana County representative, who personally appeared before the committee and succeeded in having it eliminated before the bill reached the house floor.

House Republican leaders also exercised their influence together with representatives of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Legion and Disabled American Veterans.

Weirton Sewer Rate Hearing Will Be Held

WEIRTON — The West Virginia Public Service Commission at Charleston will hold a hearing Dec. 18 at Weirton's petition for a 45-per cent increase in rates charged by the municipal sewer system.

The city said the higher rates would increase annual revenues by $146,000. Weirton has issued $5 million worth of revenue bonds to finance extensive sewer system improvements.

The proposed rates, based on water consumption, would leave the current minimum charge of $7.50 per quarter unchanged but would make upward adjustments in various blocks of the rate scale.

Rates for users outside the city would run 20 per cent higher than those inside the city.

Cake Cheers Hospitalized Child

Joanie McIntosh missed the thrills of Halloween trick-or-treat fun, and the Thanksgiving holiday was almost just another date on the calendar—but when her birthday anniversary rolled around Wednesday—that was a different story.

The 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale McIntosh, 317 2nd St., Wellsville, has been a patient for seven weeks in the Osteopathic Hospital.

And for the special event yesterday, her mother brought a round and white cake appropriately decorated and which was shared with other patients. Staff nurses sang "Happy Birthday" as the cake was cut.

The cake had pink and white icing, decorated with bells and candles and inscribed with "Happy Birthday Joanie" in pink. And that cheered up the patient considerably, just as the doctor prescribed.

Suffering from rheumatic fever, Joanie also had the mumps during her hospital siege.

This is the second time the fifth grade student at MacDonald School has been in the hospital, having had a tonsillectomy two years ago. To help pass the time, Joan reads, paints and is learning to crochet.

Joanie, who has dark brown hair and brown eyes, attends the Riverside Presbyterian Church and has two sisters, Barbara, who will be 8 on Dec. 13, and Diane, 3.

New Republican Club Slates Nominations

The committee will meet Jan. 13 at 8 p.m. at the headquarters.

U.S. Suggests To Soviet Renewal Of Exchange Talks

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

CULTURAL EXCHANGE: The United States has suggested to the Soviet Union that negotiations on a renewal of the U.S.-Soviet cultural exchange agreement start early in January, U.S. sources said today.

Originally, the negotiations were scheduled to begin in Moscow last month but they were canceled by the United States after Russia arrested Yale Professor Frederick C. Barghoorn on spy charges. He was released after a strong statement on his behalf by the late President Kennedy.

IN MEMORY: The Kennedy family has given the White House a painting in memory of the late President. It has been hung in the Green Room.

The painting is an oil by the French artist Claude Monet (1840-1926) and is entitled "A Morning on the Seine."

The White House said Wednesday the Monet was selected "because it reflects the President's deep love of the outdoors and particularly of water, and represents the very personal taste in painting of both President and Mrs. Kennedy."

TAXES: Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen has told President Johnson that the Senate will act early next year on the $11-billion tax reduction bill and will make it retroactive to Jan. 1.

Dirksen told newsmen Wednesday that he had assured Johnson there would be "no dilatory tactics — no delay in moving along as fast as possible" on the measure.

Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., Senate Finance Committee chairman, has said it is possible his group will reach some decision on the House-passed measure before Christmas.

Salem Council Eyes Creek Water Source

SALEM — Council has authorized a study of the feasibility of pumping water from Beaver Creek to the city reservoir to supplement the municipal water supply.

The city purchased a 79-acre tract along the creek near Shelton's Grove in 1962 at a cost of $4,500. It was indicated a lift pumping station would be required because the reservoir is about 160 feet above the creek level.

Wellsville Club Gives Pins To 3

Perfect attendance pins were presented three at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at Piatt's Tea Room.

Tom Grafton, program chairman, presented the pins to Tom Piatt, 10 years; Atty. William Bush, three years, and Paul Nightingale, one year.

The club's annual Christmas tree sale has opened at Grafton Motor Sales on Main St.

The annual Ladies Night Christmas party will be held next Tuesday at 6:30 at Piatt's. Gifts will be collected for children of the Columbiana County Welfare Department.

August Imgard's spruce Christmas tree decorated with paper ornaments and a metal star made by a local blacksmith at Wooster in 1847 popularized the tree in Ohio.

Vandalism Should Be Curbed

Some vandalism can be expected from time to time, but the incidents have mounted here in the last few weeks to the point where they are becoming alarming.

A principal in one East End school building has found it advisable to send home a letter to parents of the children under his supervision asking their cooperation in helping to curb the undesirable practices.

Vandalism is like many other things that seem to catch on without too much effort. Unfortunately, the results in this case go on the wrong side of the ledger, with the problem calling for speedy remedial action.

The Christmas season on the whole is too joyous a time to be marred by the acts of some thoughtless youngsters.

All East Liverpool parents should pause in their busy schedules and talk things over with their children. Most youngsters are sensible enough to choose between right and wrong and a word to the wise probably will prove sufficient.

Those parents who are inclined to shrug off the matter with "boys will be boys" or "girls will be girls" should think twice before doing so.

In some cases, the vandals are damaging property which the parents themselves as taxpayers have been helping to support with their hard-earned dollars.

In addition to counseling their own youngsters, parents should not hesitate in informing police or school authorities of vandalism by others which may come to their attention.

Fitting Tribute

Hancock County commissioners have acted wisely in formally naming the former lock site near Newell the "John F. Kennedy Recreation Park."

The spot already has attracted boaters from throughout the tri-state area and should become even more popular as it is improved and expanded over the years.

Established for public use, it will stand as a fitting tribute to the late president, who had displayed an intense interest in the nation's waterways and properly-operated recreational facilities.

Another Reminder To Mail Early

The Christmas shopping season is with us in earnest and most tri-state area residents already have given plenty of thought to early mailing.

But for those who may have missed announcements on the proper procedure for speeding packages, cards and letters at this time of the year, a review of some of the points made by East Liverpool and area postmasters seems in order.

Here are things you can do to help your self and the postal workers:

Address your cards and parcels legibly and completely — including the use of ZIP code numbers.

Mail cards and parcels going by airmail to the armed forces and civilians overseas no later than Dec. 10.

Mail parcels for delivery in distant states not later than Dec. 7 and not later than Dec. 14 for local and nearby areas. Parcels and greeting cards going by surface transportation to Alaska and Hawaii already should be in the mail to assure delivery by Christmas.

Mail greeting cards no later than Dec. 10 for distant states and by Dec. 15 to nearby and local points.

Observance of the above suggestions can go a long way toward making it possible for the East Liverpool post office and for postal authorities and employees throughout the district and the rest of America to do their characteristically good job of brightening the Yuletide for our friends and for ourselves.

Terrorists Didn't Terrorize

One defeat of terrorism at the polls doesn't make Venezuela safe for the democratic process.

But if last Sunday's voting had gone the other way, Venezuela now would be safe for terrorists.

It was as definitive a showdown as this hemisphere is likely to see. Terrorists had flocked in from Cuba. In their hands, Venezuela would be a staging area for Communist infiltration of Latin America. The Soviet Union's interest is not in Cuba for itself but in Cuba as a lever to pry Latin America out of the orbit of North America.

Everything was done according to the classic formula in Venezuela. Cuba sent in secret agents, revolutionaries, terrorists, arms, subversionists—all the gimmicks that have worked well before.

The idea was to scare voters into a state of chaos that would cause the government to be overthrown and keep President Romulo Betancourt from turning over the government to an elected successor—the first time in Venezuela's 152-year history that a chief of state would have served out his term.

The usually reliable strategy failed. The terrorists didn't terrorize. They killed Venezuelans at the rate of one a day during the climax of the campaign, but 95 per cent of the eligible Venezuelans voted on Sunday.

Venezuela is not out of the woods, but neither is it lost to terrorism. That much has been gained for self-determination.

ize, except the cheapness of the people who thought of doing it?

If anyone asked me what would be suitable I think it might be a great stone bench—the John F. Kennedy bench. The name would be carved large across the back rest, so all could see it.

And on a bronze plate set in front of the bench, for all to see would be this borrowed from Balzac:

"Hatred is the vice of narrow souls; they feed it with all their littlenesses, and make it the pretext of base tyrannies."

This 'n That

The first income tax law in the U.S. was signed in July of 1862 by Abraham Lincoln — a law providing for a tax on the salaries and pay of officers and persons in the service of the U.S. This tax was repealed 10 years later. Another income tax law was passed in 1894, but was declared unconstitutional. It wasn't until 1913, when the 16th Amendment was adopted, that income taxes became a permanent part of our way of life.

The first successful organization of labor on a large scale in the U.S. came with the formation of the Mechanics Union of Trade Association, in Philadelphia in 1827. This organization brought together workers of many crafts.

The state of Wyoming was the first in U.S. history to insure woman's place in politics. In 1869, it gave women the right to vote, and Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, who held office in 1925-27, was the first U.S. woman state governor.

The ancient Inca Indians of South America operated a regular mail service. Runners stationed every few miles relayed messages, which sometimes traveled as many as 150 miles in one day.

Hawaii was discovered in 1778 by Capt. James Cook, who named it the Sandwich Islands. It was ruled by native monarchs until 1893, thereafter as a republic until 1898, when it ceded itself to the U.S.

The world's mightiest flow of fresh water is produced by South America's Amazon River. With its tributaries, it drains 2.7 million square miles of land.

The Ten Commandments, as handed down to the people of Israel by Moses in about 1200 B.C., in one form or another, can be found in law everywhere during all ages of history since that time.

The English System Of Government

By DAVID LAWRENCE

By a fortuitous circumstance, the United States today has in Lyndon Johnson a president who though chosen under the American electoral system, possesses the very kind of legislative experience characteristic of the parliamentary system prevalent in other English-speaking David Lawrence countries.

While the vice-presidential nomination has been given to members of the Senate or House several times in American history, the leader of a party in the Senate has not as frequently been named for the vice presidency.

Yet, by reason of a strategic position in the councils of his party, such a man is closer to the problems of the national government than are any of the governors of states or even individual members of Congress who, though they may become prominent, are not selected by their colleagues to be party leaders.

The trend in recent years, of course, has been toward the selection of a vice-presidential nominee from Congress. Sen. Charles Curtis, majority leader, was vice president under President Hoover. House Speaker John Nance Garner became vice president under Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1933. Senate Majority Leader Alben W. Barkley was elected vice president with Harry Truman in 1948.

ALTHOUGH NOT his party's leader, Sen. John F. Kennedy came close to winning the vice-presidential nomination on the ticket with Mr. Stevenson in 1956, but the Democratic convention delegates turned to another senator, the late Estes Kefauver of Tennessee, for the second place, who, too, was not the party's leader.

Few of these men, however, had the popularity or support inside the Congress that Lyndon Johnson enjoyed in his eight years as Senate majority leader. This correspondent, in a dispatch from the Democratic National Convention at Los Angeles on July 11, 1960, wrote:

"The Texas senator (Lyndon Johnson) is the real choice of the delegates here. There's no doubt about it. Every conversation with key men in various delegations confirms that appraisal. The feeling is that Johnson could surely win in November and that Kennedy is likely to be beaten by Nixon. The contrast is between a youthful candidate and an experienced leader."

Mr. Kennedy turned out to be a man of more maturity than former President Truman and other Democratic spokesmen at the time believed him to be, but there was no question about the sentiment of many of the delegates for the Senate majority leader.

The late speaker of the house, Sam Rayburn, who led the convention fight for Sen. Johnson, kept emphasizing Mr. Johnson's legislative experience in his talks with the delegates.

BUT HOW did Sen. Johnson happen to get the vice-presidential nomination? Primarily, Mr.

Kennedy recognized the political value all the Southern states would go Democratic. In a dispatch from Los Angeles on July 20, 1960, this correspondent wrote:

"When word was being passed around the convention hall last Thursday that Sen. Johnson had accepted Sen. Kennedy's offer of the vice-presidential nomination, a close adviser of the Texas senator approached this correspondent and said:

"I know you will be surprised about this, but last night several of us had a talk with Sen. Johnson and discussed very frankly what we were up against. Bear in mind that the labor leaders fought Johnson for the top place on the ticket, and they don't like him.

"Bear in mind that Jack Kennedy will make a campaign on virtually a socialistic platform. He may be less radical if elected, but he will be plenty radical in the campaign. What is that going to do to us in the South during the coming session of Congress and later on?"

"Well, many of us in the Johnson camp felt he just had to get in there and exercise a restraining influence. If elected, Lyndon Johnson will have considerable power inside the Senate, just as he has had as majority leader.

"I tell you his influence will be exerted toward safe and sane policies, and he will be in there pitching. We told him he just had to accept the vice-presidential nomination if offered to him. He had nothing to lose if defeated, because he would remain as majority leader."

IT SO HAPPENS that Lyndon Johnson ran for the Senate on the same day in 1960 that he was voted for as a vice-presidential nominee. This was made possible by Texas law.

Incidentally, under the parliamentary system, the election is always for individual seats, and later on the prime minister is selected by the majority of the members of the national legislature itself from their own ranks.

There sometimes is a slowdown and seifious delay when a vice president has succeeded to the presidency. But the same weakness occurs when changing from one party to the other in national elections, as new Cabinet members unfamiliar with legislative problems are selected.

On that very point on Nov. 28, 1960—after the close election of that year—a dispatch by this writer said:

"What America lacks today is a system that provides for continuity in government, with a trained personnel that has become familiar with the problems of government. To choose a president by popular vote sounds, theoretically, desirable, but the indirect system, whereby the people choose their members of Congress carefully and they in turn pick the president, would in the end, provide more stability to the whole governmental process."

Unanswered Questions About Oswald

By VICTOR RIESEL

It would have been impolite and impolitic in the past few days to ask Soviet authorities some pertinent questions about Lee Harvey Oswald. The White House has been desperately and understandably eager to avoid an international incident by appearing to give even the slightest insinuation of an international plot to assassinate John Kennedy.

But now the Central Committee of the Communist party, USSR, has changed the rules. It has authorized its newspaper, Pravda, to insinuate that Oswald was a Central Intelligence Agent under President Eisenhower and under the late President Kennedy. Therefore, it's time to ask the Soviets some questions which are being discussed in international intelligence circles.

The Russians have said officially they denied Oswald Soviet citizenship because he was a "Trotskyite." This means he was declared an enemy of the state — a few days ago. But why was he permitted, back in 1959, to travel freely inside the Soviet Union? This is a coveted privilege. Official permission is needed by foreigners for bus and train travel. Yet he went some 420 miles from Moscow to Minsk.

WHY DID the Soviet employment services direct him to a job? This must have happened. He spoke no Russian then. He read no Russian. He had insufficient funds for such travel.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

By George Lichty

'You're very quiet . . . thinking up something expensive, doc?'

He must have been directed to Minsk. He must have been assigned a job.

Employment is under rigid control. In the Soviet Union an applicant doesn't exactly get the Sunday papers and run through a list of want ads.

Who vouched for his identity card? Who got him his "rabochaya knizhka" — work permit? Such documents are absolutely necessary — especially for foreign workers.

Without such papers he could not have been hired. He could not have drawn his wages and social benefits. He could not have participated in cultural affairs.

And who approved Oswald's membership in a Russian union. Joining is mandatory, so that central discipline can be exerted. That's why the Central Council of Soviet Trade Unions can claim 26 million members.

If the Soviet authorities believed Oswald to be a "Trotskyite" and an American spy, why did they permit him to associate freely with his fellow factory workers? Such activity might have eluded the secret police for a few weeks but not for over two years.

WHY DID the KGB (state security secret police) permit him to marry an attractive Russian girl? A few words to her and that romance would have ended quicker than you can say Siberia.

Why was he permitted to quit his job and then travel freely from Minsk to Moscow? True, workers are not yet absolutely frozen to their jobs inside Russia. But few just pick themselves up and leave.

Fewer, especially spies and enemies of the state, could blithely get travel accommodations for such a long haul. And this time, one must envision such a trip being taken by an ex-U.S. Marine and his Russian wife and child.

How did the attractive and sturdy Mrs. Oswald get permission to abandon her job in a land starved for workers. The Oswalds had no money when they got to Moscow. Where did they get the bus or train fare for the journey from the interior?

Finally, how did the alleged assassin get his wife and child out of the Soviet Union? Might a few have accomplished this. I checked this out with an official of the Immigration and Naturalization Service. He could not recall more than four or five such instances. In some of these cases it took years to get an exit permit. Yet Oswald simply put in his request and got immediate approval.

WHAT COMPOUNDS the mystery even more is that Oswald had no skills. Once back in the United States, he lost every job he held. He simply was incompetent. What could he have done inside the Soviet Union for 2½ years which would be worth their paying for? Why don't they make his work record public?

True, President Johnson has been told that Oswald was a misfit, a loner, a desperate seeker of prominence and publicity. True, the State Department has him down in its records as a "fuzzy Marxist."

True, the most authentic reports have it that there was no international plot. But why were the Soviets so kind and why did they offer so many privileges to a "Trotskyite"?

The Season To Be Wary

By Isadore Barnash

The Christmas shopping season is a time to be jolly—and wary.

At home or in the office, watch out for the gyp artists. They come out of hiding just about this time to victimize thousands of hurried, unwary Christmas shoppers. They capitalize on the Christmas rush and the fact that people tend to be more generous, more trusting and less likely to turn down a request at this time of year.

Irene Clynes, manager of the National Better Business Bureau, says that holiday shoppers can protect themselves by avoiding fly-by-night operators and by making Christmas purchases from known, reliable dealers.

Here are the types of fraudulent approaches you can expect to make their appearance again this Christmas:

Mail-order bargain offers quoting toys, watches, jewelry and other items allegedly at a fraction of the retail price. What are you getting? A cheap imitation of the item you thought you ordered.

Attempts to collect on COD packages supposedly for your neighbor who is "not at home" according to the deliverer. The packages may contain unordered goods or be filled with paper or cotton wadding.

MAIL - ORDER schemes in which you get a claim stub telling you the shipper is holding a package which will be sent upon return of the stub and a small payment. If you send the money, you will probably get a cheap pen-and-pencil set or something like it that you never ordered.

Appeals for donations from unknown charitable groups. Or appeals by unknown charitable organizations with requests for donations for goods shipped which you never ordered. Or personal appeals by mail from self-described "needy" individuals.

Distribution of courtesy cards for purchasing gifts at discounts from fictitious prices.

The perfume hoax, in sundry types and sizes, has been a recurring one, and primary targets are business executives who buy gifts in quantity for Christmas, says Miss Clynes. The hoax may be perpetrated in offices, at the factory gate, on the street, door-to-door or in the office.

The most popular version involves the selling of highly-advertized brands of colognes and toilet water which have been rebottled in purse-size containers by companies having no connection with the original manufacturer. The naive buyer believes he is buying expensive perfume at a bargain price, probably because the small containers have the same size and appearance of the genuine purse-size package.

A four-point list is furnished by Miss Clynes to avoid being victimized. You are not generally obligated to return or pay for unordered merchandise received through the mails unless you use it.

However, you are required to surrender it if the shippers or their agents call for it within a "reasonable" time.

Consumers who order holiday gifts from mail - order firms should generally allow three or four weeks for delivery.

Sales may well be final, so ascertain conditions of sales and obtain guarantees in writing.

Make sure to examine purchases before Christmas and don't expect transient vendors to come around after the holiday to listen to complaints.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: For ladies who hang their sheets on the line:

During cold weather remove the sheets from your washing machine and straighten them out while STILL in the house where it's warm.

Take your clothes pins and clip them on the sheet while STILL in your warm utility room. This saves time standing outside in the cold and trying to straighten the sheets.

This same method also works in the summertime for those who do not like the heat! Straighten out the sheets in your cool house, clip on the pins and then when you go out in that hot sun you don't have to stand so long.

By using this method the year round you can hang your sheets twice as fast.

OLDER HOUSEWIFE.

DEAR HELOISE: With Christmas coming I have purchased red nylon net to wrap all my Christmas packages. I will first cover them with white tissue paper.

I will also use the red net to make Christmas bows and pom-poms and of course I will indicate to the one who gets the box to save the Hello-Ease net for later use as dish cloths, etc.

Thanks to the gal who suggested putting a thin sheet blanket over our electric blanket and folding it down over the top. Helps keep the blanket clean. The sheet blanket also holds in the heat so that the electric blanket can be set at a lower temperature and thus uses less electricity.

One more thing, Heloise. Can you tell me how to keep raisins soft?

MARY BUCK.

DEAR MARY: When you bring those raisins home from the store and they are still soft in their wax paper inside the box... dump them into a fruit jar with a screw top and cap it TIGHTLY.

This is the only way I have found to eliminate the problem once the box has been opened.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Marshmallows are a good insulator for cookies or cakes which go through the mail. The marshmallows not only keep the product fresh but act as a cushion for fragile wafers and cookies. (Also they may be eaten when they arrive at their destination.) Use plenty of them and stuff them in all corners to insure a safe journey for the gift.

Stamps stuck together will separate easily if they are put in the freezer compartment of your refrigerator. After an hour or so, they can be pulled apart and you will find the mucilage intact.

JEAN WILKINSON.

DEAR HELOISE: I got so sick of spotted asphalt floors near both my kitchen doors, and on the hard wood near my front door. I finally found that I could take a newspaper (after cutting your column out), fold it in half and lay one by each door. Now my family puts overshoes and umbrellas on the paper and hang their raincoats above, thus preventing spots on my floors. Makes no difference whether it's January or June. When a quick rain comes up always throw newspapers in front of your doors to eliminate the marks on your floors.

DISGUSTED WITH SPOTS.

DEAR HELOISE: If rubber overshoes have worn thin and are slippery when walking on icy streets, it is a good idea to glue a piece of VERY ROUGH sandpaper on the bottom with a good grade of glue. This may prevent a dangerous fall.

OLDSTER.

Mrs. Oswald

placed in a Lutheran home for children where she now says they received "a wonderful religious education."

Lee, the baby, stayed with her and was cared for by her sister and whoever else she could get to babysit. When Lee reached the age of 3, he, too, went into the home, remaining there until he was 5.

"That was when I married Mr. Edward K. Eckdahl, who made $10,000 a year and had an expense account," she said. "We lived in Fort Worth. Lee was with me. After a few months I planned to file suit for divorce but delayed it because I did not want to take Lee out of school. While I was waiting, Mr. Eckdahl got a divorce from me."

She shook her head in sad wonder. "I'd been married three times and altogether had husbands for only 8 years," she says.

"Lee was such a fine, high class boy," she says. "He didn't waste time with comic books and trashy things. On Sundays, I'd take him to church and then we'd have lunch somewhere and go to the zoo, he knew the names of every animal there, and to the planetarium, he just knew everything about stars, and to the museums."

This idyllic picture of mother-son relationship jars with less romantic official documents which said that 13-year-old Lee had schizophrenic tendencies and was potentially dangerous.

Nor does it agree with the recollection of John Carro, who was Lee's probation officer from April 1953 to January 1954. Carro said Mrs. Oswald refused to consider her son anything more than a truant, balked at aid from welfare agencies, ignored a court order that Lee receive psychiatric treatment.

What does she say to this now?

She doesn't have a direct comment. The answer is contained in her conviction that as a mother she, and only she, could know her son.

"I have to face this alone," she says, "but I will do it. I have always faced life. I have been exploited since childhood. But there has been no turning away. I have faith. I do not question the will of God."

And yet there is something about her demeanor that suggests she has been cast in a role that despite its tragic overtones and its tragic cost has had an importance for her.

The television set in her living room was on as she talked.

and she became anxious as a program came to an end. The news came on then and after some reporting of Washington and international events, the scene turned to Fort Worth, and a previous interview with her.

She called to three Secret Service agents who were on duty at her home: "You all want to see me on television?"

She watched herself with quiet absorption, the intensity of her interest paralleling that of a starlet seeing a screening that might lead to a big dollar contract.

Whatever history may record of the life and times of Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, and what part she played in the shaping of the man accused of the crime of the century, it became crystal clear shortly after high noon that Mrs. Oswald would know the short personal history of quick fame.

The newspapermen had gone. And now the three Secret Service men pulled out, without warning.

And she made the awful discovery that comes to all who get caught in the bright glare of public attention. The light shines all too briefly and gives little warmth and then quickly, coldly, the crowds are gone, the questioners vanish and all that is left is a shade-drawn room, empty and echoing the sobs of dreadful loneliness.

Her wail was captured in her cry:

"I'm the mother of the accused assassin and people don't care about me."

Sargus Decries 'Railroading' Of New Legislation

By WILLIAM VANCE
Review Correspondent
COLUMBUS — Sen. Edmund A. Sargus, D-St. Clairsville, put into words for this Senate colleagues Wednesday a sentiment that has been riding the undercurrents of frustration in this unusual and hectic legislative session.

In essence, Sargus believes things are moving too fast.

He made the point in floor debate on the $500 million highway bond issue resolution which the Senate adopted 29-3 and sent to the House.

Explaining his intention to vote for the resolution "with reservations," Sargus said he shared the feeling of some of his colleagues and legislative observers here that bills are being railroaded.

Legislation is coming to the floor so rapidly, he said, that members don't have time to analyze what they're voting on. "We came here believing we would be attending to three or four matters," he said, "but we have been deluged. There has just not been enough time to consider all these matters."

He was joined in that conviction by Sen. Robin Turner, R-Tiffin, who maintained the resolution had not been explained adequately. Turner also voted for it with reservations.

Palestine Boys Given Vandalism Warning

EAST PALESTINE — Destruction of at least 16 street lights by BB gun pellets in the past few weeks today brought a sharp warning to vandals from Police Chief Wallace Dilworth.

The chief said some of the lights are of the new type recently installed, and cost $15 to replace. He said use of air guns in the city is prohibited, and anyone apprehended will be prosecuted, and parents of youths involved will be held responsible.

Sentence Deferred In Embezzlement Case

WARREN — Sentence has been deferred for Glesner Griffin, former Howland Township clerk who pleaded guilty Wednesday to embezzling $1,548 of public funds and submitting false bills for payment of $4,631.

Griffin, who also was treasurer and zoning inspector of the township, had pleaded innocent when arraigned. Sentence was deferred until the first of the year to allow Griffin, who is not in good health, to go to a hospital.

Trial Over False Arrest Recedes

LISBON — Trial of a $75,000 suit charging false arrest in Common Pleas Court was recessed after the plaintiff, Milton Schulman of University Heights, was on the stand late Wednesday afternoon.

The case will resume Monday at 9 a. m. before Judge Raymond S. Buzzard. The jury has heard testimony of the three defendants, George Bodirnea Jr., Salem tavern operator; State Patrolman Thomas Davis of Ravenna, and Felix Butch of Lisbon. Mrs. Schulman also testified, followed by her husband, before court was recessed.

Bodirnea allegedly saw the plaintiff almost cause a wreck on Route 45 Sept. 5, 1954, and he went immediately to the State Patrol Barracks, then near Salem, and reported the incident.

The officer on duty radioed patrol cars and Ptl. Davis halted Schulman near Lisbon and waited for Bodirnea to file the charges before Butch, who was then justice of the peace. Schulman would not consent to a hearing before Butch, who bound him over to the Grand Jury. Schulman was indicted on three counts — reckless operation, driving left of center and failure to observe markings.

A petit jury acquitted Schulman on Nov. 10, 1954, and he filed the civil suit 11 months later, alleging false arrests and malicious prosecution.

Old-fashioned cooks would fry chicken in a combination of lard and butter; they also used this combination of fats for creating rich flaky tender pastry.

Post Office Set To Move

The "big move" will be made Saturday by Wellsville's Post Office employees.

Postmaster E. J. Evans said today the operations will be moved from the present location to the new Post Office building at 11th and Main Sts. Saturday, beginning at noon.

"At the drop of the windows noon Saturday, the move will be on," he reported.

Time of the moving had been uncertain as a faulty thermostat on the heating system has not been replaced. Evans received word Wednesday afternoon that the thermostat is being mailed and should be installed in time for the transfer. The contractor said that if the thermostat does not arrive, arrangements will be made to see that the heating system is in operation to allow the transfer of equipment and operations.

All equipment ordered for the new, $120,000 facility has arrived and been installed.

Construction on the Post Office was started this summer by Better Homes Investment Corp. of Youngstown.

Full-time operations will begin Monday, Evans reminded patrons.

He pointed out the patrons who use boxes will be given new numbers and the new boxes will contain new types of combination locks.

The holiday hours will begin Monday. They have been extended to handle the annual Christmas mail rush.

Cancer Chapter's Share $4,000 For Research

A check for $4,000 has been turned over to the National Cancer Society by the Columbiana County Chapter for use in the all-out national research on the dread disease.

Dr. William Kolozsi, medical delegate from the county chapter, at left, receives the check from Howard Schaefer, treasurer, representing the county's contribution from the estimated $18,000 realized in the April Cancer Crusade, headed by Sam Brown of East Liverpool. Dr. Kolozsi and Schaefer are of Salem.

Brown noted that the ACS has 397 national research grants currently in effect valued at more than $12 million. This swells the society's total cancer research investment, since 1945, to more than $127 million.

ASC-financed research being conducted in Ohio during the current year has dozens of Ohio scientists working on more than 11 projects, totaling more than $327,000.

Four institutions in three Ohio cities are involved — Western Research University, six grants, $114,680, and Highland View Hospital, one grant, $17,293, both of Cleveland; Ohio State University, four grants, $133,546, and University of Cincinnati, three grants, $58,639.

The ASC's national clinical fellowship program during the last 15 years has invested $7,059,595 for post-graduate training in cancer for 1,613 physicians and dentists. Currently 21 of these fellowships are in effect in Ohio, valued at $261,170.

3 Men Hunted In Bank Robbery

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Scores of law enforcement officers combed rural areas of Muskingum County today for three men who robbed a Frazeyburg bank of an estimated $6,000.

Two holdup men fled on foot Wednesday when their stolen getaway car failed to start following the holdup at a branch of the First National Bank of Zanesville. The third fled in a second stolen car that was parked at a nearby service station.

Sheriff's deputies later found about $4,000 in a field near Frazeyburg. Bank officials said it was part of the holdup money. Sheriff Fred Uffner said the robbers apparently stuffed the remainder in their pockets.

The car stolen from the service station was found abandoned about two miles outside Frazeyburg. Officers were searching that area as well as the vicinity where the money was found.

The first Christmas trees in Ohio are believed to have been set up in the Cincinnati homes of the Krausnick and Rehfs families in 1835.

WHEELING — The plush Willow Brook Country Club dining room and clubhouse were destroyed by fire Wednesday night as four fire companies found it impossible to draw enough water from a nearby stream, the only source available.

Damage was estimated at $100,000. No cause had been determined.

The country club was closed for the winter about two months ago and only the cook was living on the premises. He was not there when the fire broke out, however.

Chairmen Named

Countywide Convention Of Democrats Set Feb. 1

Committee chairmen for the Columbiana County Democrat countywide convention Feb. 1 at Lisbon were named at a meeting of the convention committee Wednesday night.

The event — the first county party convention in history, according to Atty. Paul Tobin, convention chairman — will be held at the Lincoln Junior High School at Lisbon starting at 3 p. m.

Ben Barrett of Salem is chairman of the platform committee, Mrs. Iris Applegate of East Liverpool heads the credentials committee, and Judge Louis Tobin of East Liverpool is chairman of the rules and speakers committee.

Atty. Tobin said official credentials will be sent to each of the 156 central committeemen who will be the official delegates, and who will have alternate.

Purpose of a county convention is to strengthen the party and more closely integrate the party election operations.

The convention will have two objectives: to adopt a clearcut platform for each county office to be filled, along with state representatives, and to endorse candidates for the offices on the basis of the platforms, Atty. Tobin said.

Those party candidates who received the endorsement of the convention will get the support and financial aid of the party along the line, he said.

If there are two Democrat candidates seeking the nomination for a county office, the party will officially select and endorse one candidate on the basis of platform alignment, he explained.

"The other candidate can still run, of course, because that is the law," Atty. Tobin went on, "but the endorsed candidate will get the party support because he will be more closely in harmony with party objectives."

He said Barrett will call a meeting of the platform committee to which announced candidates for office will be invited to help shape the platform.

The next full meeting of the convention committee will be called by Atty. Tobin.

Pittsburgh Orchestra Will Present Concert On Sunday

The Pittsburgh Symphony Symphonetta will present the third concert of the season for the Tri-State Civic Music Association at 3 p. m. Sunday at Westgate School under the direction of Haig Yaghjian.

An organization a little less than half the size of its parent Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, the musicians are for the most part "first-desk" men of the symphony orchestra — the most outstanding musicians available, sponsors said.

With a wide repertory, calling on the artistry of many members for solo performances, the symphonetta is a delight to concert audiences, young and old, the association said.

In addition to its scheduled concert visits to dozens of cities, the group annually plays for the Tiny Tot Concert and the Little People Concerts of Pittsburgh, which attract more than 6,000 children of pre-school and the first three primary grades.

Yaghjian, a native of Detroit, joined the Pittsburgh

Symphony Orchestra as associate conductor and conductor of the symphonetta at the beginning of the current concert season. For four years, he was assistant conductor of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra and six years he directed the Fresno (Calif.) Philharmonic Orchestra.

He first came to Pittsburgh in 1959 to participate in the conductors' workshop sponsored by the American Symphony Orchestra League. He is also the music director of the Pittsburgh Training Orchestra.

Miss Luella Thompson, president, announced the reception committee for the orchestra consists of Mrs. Beulah Malkin and Vincent Maola.

Pope's Visit To Holy Land Set Jan. 1-10, Report Says

VATICAN CITY (AP) — The unprecedented pilgrimage to the Holy Land by Pope Paul VI will be made in the first 10 days of January, a Vatican spokesman said today. Jews and Arabs alike welcomed the news.

The Pope is expected to break a second precedent by making the trip by plane. No pontiff has flown before, although as a cardinal Pope Paul frequently used planes.

Christian and Jewish leaders around the world praised the Pope's decision to make the pilgrimage, coming at a time when the Catholic Church has taken steps toward Christian unity.

King Hussein, Moslem monarch of Jordan, announced that the Pope would be his personal guest. A spokesman for Israel's embassy in Rome said: "We are waiting impatiently to be contacted by the Vatican." Both the Israeli and Jordan embassies said no visas will be required.

The pontiff will be visiting a Holy Land long divided by the hostility of Arabs and Jews. In his surprise announcement at the end of the Vatican Ecumenical Council's second session Wednesday, Pope Paul said he wanted to make the pilgrimage "on behalf of peace among men."

The 2,200 cardinals, archbishops, and patriarchs hastened back to their dioceses after the council's second two-month session.

The third session of the council will be held in September 1964.

The family Christmas party for members of the post and auxiliary has been scheduled tentatively for Saturday, Dec. 21.

James H. Kleinman of Salem was enrolled as a new member.

Reports on child welfare and service activities were given by William Gamble and Larry Rush. Gene Lytton, finance officer, spoke briefly on activities.

George LaNeve, commander, presided. Next meeting is Dec. 18.

Rights Resolutions Placed Before National Church Unit

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Two strong civil rights resolutions were placed before the general assembly of the National Council of Churches today.

The Rev. Dr. Robert W. Spike, executive director of the council's commission on religion and race, said in an interview that he felt both resolutions would be debated but would be approved by the 5,000 delegates.

Dr. Spike, an officer of the United Church of Christ on leave to head the commission, said one resolution called on the assembly to support President Johnson in his campaign to win early passage of the late President John F. Kennedy's civil rights bill. The other urged complete desegregation of churches.

Dr. Spike said the first resolution urged members of the assembly to urge their congressmen to sign a discharge petition, a rare parliamentary maneuver, which would force the civil rights legislation to the House floor for action.

House Democratic leaders are planning to introduce the petition Monday. It requires the signatures of 218 congressmen, or half the House membership. The bill is stalled in the House Rules Committee.

Vote Probe Hit By Sen. Collins

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An investigation into alleged voting irregularities in Lawrence County is politically motivated, State Sen. Oakley C. Collins, R-Ironton, has charged.

Collins issued a statement Wednesday night concerning a hearing conducted in Ironton Tuesday by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown and his aides.

The senator said, among other things, that he is grieved that Brown "has used me to further his political ambitions as an announced senatorial candidate."

Brown is seeking the Republican nomination for the U. S. Senate in the May primary.

Collins' name was mentioned several times by witnesses at the hearing who told of alleged attempts to buy votes during the Nov. 5 election.

Brown ordered the probe, he said, because an unusually high number of absentee and disabled voter ballots were cast in the election.

This season's Texas Tech team is the first to win as many as five games in one campaign since the 1955 Red Raiders.

2 Jaycees At Lisbon
Hurt In Yule Work
LISBON — Two Junior Chamber of Commerce members, putting up Christmas street decorations, were injured Wednesday at 10:30 p.m. when a fork-lift they were using stopped suddenly and threw them to the pavement. They dropped an estimated 12 feet in the street at the Public Square.

Dean Rose of R. D. 5 fell on his shoulder and head and was taken to Salem City Hospital after being checked by two local physicians. He was in "fair" condition.

Keith Cox, 238 W. High St., received a broken right foot. It was placed in a cast. He is expected to be laid up for three or four weeks.

To Fill Inspector Job
The Municipal Civil Service Commission today scheduled an examination Wednesday, Jan. 22, to draw up a list of eligibles for appointment to the post of sanitary policeman in the Health Department.

Applications will be received until Friday, Dec. 27, at 4 p. m., the commission said. The post pays $370 monthly, plus $75-a-month car expense.

That turkey carcass will make a good broth if you cook it in a small amount of water with a celery branch, small carrot, onion slice, peppercorns, a bay leaf and a few allspice. Add salt after the broth has been strained.

How To Build Your Appetite

"I have no appetite. I am 29, 5' 4" tall and weigh a scant 92 pounds. If there is any real serious physical, or organic trouble, the doctor has not located it. He assumes it is possible for me to gain, build up a stronger constitution and feel better. What suggestions—eat more often. If you habitually skip on breakfast, try adding a small portion of one nourishing food, such as a few tablespoons of hot cereal, perhaps with chopped dates or raisins added. In the middle of the morning, instead of a coffee break, have a glass of milk, and take this early enough so as not to lessen your appetite for appetite for lunch. And for a mid-afternoon snack have a glass of milk, a milk shake or hot cocoa.

TAKE ADVANTAGE of booster calories in the form of a protein-mineral-vitamin concentrate. Talk with your doctor about these booster nutrients—such as Meritene, or Nutriment, Ovaltine, or malted milk powder.

Could you take a "daily vacation" from tension... and for fifteen minutes relax and let go with your muscles. A rest period before meals is often essential in an upbuilding program. A rest before lunch is helpful, but a rest before the evening meal is often a necessity, for fatigue affects appetite adversely. With many underweights it is impossible to gain until this regular rest is established. Persistence in an upbuilding program will bring an increase in nervous stability, health and endurance, then with increased calories you will gain needed pounds.

Film Director Dies

LONDON (AP)—Robert Hamer, 52, British film director best known for his "Kind Hearts and Coronets," died Wednesday after a brief illness.

Until Senator Says He'll Run

Sen. Cotton Delays Plans For Goldwater Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Norris Cotton said today he is delaying New Hampshire presidential primary campaign plans until Sen. Barry Goldwater indicates whether he is willing to run.

Cotton, New Hampshire Republican heading up a committee to put Goldwater's name on the March 10 preferential ballot, said in an interview he has had no conversation with the Arizona Republican since President Kennedy was assassinated.

Possibly reflecting indecision about political matters, Goldwater has declined to talk to newsmen since he announced shortly after Kennedy's death that he was canceling all political appearances for the 30-day period of mourning.

Cotton said that immediately after death removed Kennedy as Goldwater's chief political target and elevated Lyndon B. Johnson, a Texan, to the presidency, he felt the Arizona senator's chances for the nomination had skidded sharply.

But he said he subsequently has altered his opinion that Johnson might cut into Goldwater's stronghold of support in the South. He noted Johnson's endorsement of civil rights and other key provisions of Kennedy's legislative program.

"Every pronouncement the new President makes has been putting Goldwater back in business," Cotton said. "He certainly has gone far beyond what was required to honor the memory of his predecessor." The Goldwater people have had to stand by fuming while supporters of New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller have been blanketing the state on a town-by-town basis drumming up support for their announced candidate for the nomination. Supporters of former Vice President Richard M. Nixon also are reported stirring in the state. He carried New Hampshire by 20,000 votes in 1960 when he lost the presidency to Kennedy by an eyelash.

St. Clair CD To Give Certificate In Course

Plans to present certificates to those who completed a recent Civil Defense course were made at a meeting of the St. Clair Township Civil Defense group Tuesday night at the Glenmoor fire station.

The certificates for those who completed the "Self - Help" course will be given out at the next meeting Dec. 17. Lou Bolton, assistant chief, said certificates will be given only to those present.

Jackets were ordered for the police team which received riot training after the business session. Tom Enochs was in charge. About 24 attended.

The Ohio General Assembly often held sessions on Christmas day in the early years of statehood.

Christine Goes On Trial In Plot To Frame Lover

LONDON (AP) — Christine Keeler, 21, the leading woman in the Profumo scandal, went on trial with three other persons today, accused of trying to frame one of her Negro ex-lovers.

It was Miss Keeler's fourth appearance before a judge in London's Old Bailey, the central criminal court, but her first as a defendant. She could get 28 years in prison if convicted.

On trial with Miss Keeler are her apartment mate, Paula Hamilton-Marshall, 23; their housekeeper, Mrs. Olive Brooker, 56, and Rudolph Fenton, 39, a West Indian.

The three women are charged with committing perjury during the trial of Jamaican jazz singer Aloysius (Lucky) Gordon and with conspiring to subvert the course of justice. Fenton is charged only with conspiracy.

All four have pleaded innocent.

Her last appearance at Old Bailey was as a star witness against Dr. Stephen Ward, society osteopath and artist who introduced her to War Minister John Profumo. Ward was convicted of living off proceeds of her prostitution, but committed suicide before he was sentenced.

Irish Politician Dies

DUBLIN (AP)—William Norton, 63, long-time leader of Ireland's Labor party and a former Cabinet minister, died Tuesday. He headed the Labor party for 28 years before he resigned in 1960.

Laos Intelligence Official Is Slain

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma's intelligence chief, Col. Leuang, was assassinated early today as he arrived at his home on the outskirts of Vientiane.

The unknown assassins reportedly escaped in the dark.

Leuang was the chief of the Deuxieme (second) Bureau, the coalition government's intelligence section. Like Prince Souvanna, he was a member of the neutralist faction which in theory governs Laos in coalition with the right wing and the pro-Communist Pathet Lao.

There was no immediate indication of the motive for the slaying.

The assassins reportedly opened fire on Leuang's automobile with at least three automatic weapons. Leuang apparently was killed instantly.

The killers fired about 100 yards away from the colonel's house, which is in an isolated area overlooking rice fields.

2-Part Report Waited On Fire That Killed 63

NORWALK, Ohio (AP)—It will be at least another week before a two-part report is completed on the Golden Age Nursing Home fire that killed 63 persons Nov. 23 at nearby Fitchville, a state official indicated today.

One part of the report will deal with the cause of the fire which swept quickly through the rambling one-story home — a former toy factory. The other part will be recommendations of investigators of measures that should be taken to prevent such a tragedy from occurring in other nursing homes, said John M. McElroy, assistant to Gov. James A. Rhodes.

McElroy said the Ohio Attorney General's Office would assist in completing the report.

"We think there is enough information available to fix the cause of the fire," McElroy said. He declined to release any advanced word on the findings.

Disbarred Attorney To Take Fight To U.S. Supreme Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Disbarred attorney J. Harvey Crow apparently will take his fight to overturn a contempt conviction to the U. S. Supreme Court.

The Ohio Supreme Court Wednesday refused to reconsider Crow's conviction for practicing law without a license.

The 60-year-old former attorney who lives in St. Paris had said he would appeal to the U. S. court if Ohio's highest tribunal denied him a rehearing.

Chief Justice Kingsley A. Taft sentenced Crow to 30 days in jail and fined him $1,500 last Nov. 19 on the contempt conviction. Crow was released from jail on Nov. 29 under $10,000 bond pending his appeal.

In other decisions, the high court:

Rejected the self-prepared pleas of two Ohio Penitentiary inmates.

Odus Douglas, sentenced from Cuyahoga County in 1962 for armed robbery, claimed his rights were violated for lack of a court-appointed attorney prior to a preliminary hearing.

Ogle Boyer, sentenced from Miami County in 1951 for assault and for entering a home at night to commit a felony, contended his indictment was void because it recited multiple offenses arising out of the same act.

The Supreme Court said neither contention was valid.

In other cases, the court:

Upheld refusal of Lorain County Common Pleas Court to take into account the claimed life tenant rights of Carmen Fairchild in distribution of proceeds from a $25,000 foreclosure sale of Brownhelm Township property in which Stewart H. Fairchild and others held an interest. The Oberlin Savings Bank of Oberlin brought the foreclosure action.

Affirmed 1959 and 1960 personal property tax assessments against Van Wert County Farm Bureau Cooperative Association on profits allocated on its books to members on the basis of patronage in so-called "patronage retains," also known as certificates of ownership. The high court said certificates representing "intangible interests of ownership in the capital employed in such corporation, other than stock... are not exempt from taxation."

Capt. Cook Due As Chief Of Ohio Highway Patrol

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Capt. Anson B. Cook, 53, Wilmington, will succeed Col. Scott B. Radcliffe as superintendent of the Ohio Highway Patrol next Jan. 1.

Gov. James A. Rhodes announced the change today at a Statehouse ceremony for presentation of a plaque in honor of Radcliffe's 30 years with the patrol.

Radcliffe said he would become a consultant and field representative of the Highway Safety Foundation, Mansfield, a non-profit organization producing traffic safety films.

Cook, a native of Columbus, was a football letterman at Wittenberg College, Springfield, in 1932. He joined the patrol in 1935, beginning his duties at the Portsmouth post.

He served successive tours at posts in Middletown, Warren, Massillon, Medina, Lorain, Chillicothe, Wilmington, Wooster and Findlay and now is stationed at General Headquarters in Columbus.

Cook and his wife, the former Violet McArdle, a native of Massillon, two daughters, Mrs. James Wilkerson, Findlay, and Catherin, a student at Wittenberg.

Out Of The Air

By ALAN GILL

Woody Allen Wrecks The Unwary

Woody Allen, you should know by now, is that pale, small, young, innocent-looking fellow with the hornrims that seem a few ounces heavier than he is; and he shows up in the precincts of "Candid Camera" every once in a while to wreak destruction upon the unwary.

Alan Gill

He is also the hottest new comedian in the U.S.A. A few weeks ago on "Candid Camera," Woody was seen dictating a wildly personal love letter to a first-day-on-the-job secretary; and he threw in some incongruous punctuation after every six words or so.

THE GIRL'S silent reactions to each new surprise made for the funniest TV moment of the season.

On another occasion, Woody would take a taxi just far enough (about half a block) to run up a 25-cent fare. Then he'd hold the driver interminably while he figured out a 15 per cent tip.

One day, Woody and his hidden camera maintained a vigil in a book shop. As a mystery novel salesman, Allen would tell each customer the plot outline and the murderer.

"I'd spoil everything for them, making up these wild plots. The man kept their reserve and dignity. The women reacted violently."

"ONE THING I discovered on this series is: You do one thing wrong with a woman and they're right away shrieking."

"One man that day bought book after book, about six of them, and I ruined every one of them for him; but he only smiled. The cameras were going 10 minutes and I was digging frantically for a reaction. 'Don't you care?' I asked him. 'Oh,' he said, 'I'm buying these books for a friend.' I waved to the camera. 'Turn 'er off.'"

People, he went on, are most glib when "they have to come to you, like that stenographer or the caterers."

The caterers? "Yes, we had some caterers over and I told them I was a total failure and wanted them to rent a hall for me and fill it with 500 'friends' and a 'mother' and 'father.'"

"I WANTED to be given a plaque. And I wanted my body done in chopped liver or a gelatine mold."

"They didn't blink an eye. When they come to you for work and with money no object, they're so much on the defensive they'll sit still for anything you do."

Woody's only difference of opinion with Allen Funt comes with Woody's preference for long, well-developed sequences, like the secretary skit.

"Funt wants fast blackouts." His own favorite among the stunts he's done so far is one of his own invention: Woody welcoming a stranger at an airport, giving him the full VIP treatment, brass band and all.

BUT JUST NOW he's busy thinking out a couple of future stunts.

"In one, I bring in a Madison Avenue public relations man and tell him I'm a potential political candidate."

"I want him to advise me whether I should get married or not, or have children."

"In the other, I play a musical instrument. I invite in a music teacher for a last-minute brushing up before a supposed recital. I play for him. Horribly. He loves it."

Hunt Intensified For Fugitive In Ohio Jail Escape

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Area law enforcement agencies intensified their search today for an armed fugitive who escaped from the Montgomery County jail.

Emmett Ray McCarthy, 6-foot-11 escapee from the Reidsville, Ga., penitentiary, fled in a stolen car Wednesday night after pulling a gun on two deputies and ordering them into a shower room.

McCarthy, 31, and his brother were arrested Oct. 25 following the robbery of Maxim's Department Store here. He was being held on five armed robbery charges.

Erroll McCarthy, 28, alias Pete Anderson, refused to accompany him in the break-out and later apologized to deputies for his brother's actions. Erroll was locked in the same maximum security section as his brother.

Jailer V. J. Thill and Deputy E. L. Wellbaum said they did not know how McCarthy may have obtained the chrome-plated pistol he used in the escape.

Foundation Reports Grants Of $2 Million

NEW YORK — Grants of nearly $2 million to colleges and universities, the largest annual program of the Esso Education Foundation since it was established in 1955, were announced Wednesday by M. J. Rathbone, chairman of the foundation. The current grants are for the 1963-64 academic year.

By the end of the current academic year, the foundation, since its founding in 1955, will have made grants totaling more than $15,000,000.

The foundation is supported by the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey and six of its affiliates: Humble Oil & Refining Company; Esso Research and Engineering Company; Jersey Production Research Company; Esso International Inc.; Humble Pipe Line Company and Esso Standard Eastern, Inc. Seventeen colleges and universities in Ohio were among those receiving grants.

1,400 At Ford Plant Face Two-Day Layoff

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ford Motor Co. says 1,400 of the 3,500 production workers at its huge stamping plant in Walton Hills will be laid off for two days starting Friday.

A Ford spokesman Wednesday attributed the layoffs to strikes at the firm's assembly plants in Metuchen, N. J.; Wayne, Mich.; and Kansas City, Mo. He said the strikes also were responsible for a reduced work schedule last Friday at Ford's stamping plant in Buffalo.

Forced Reading Can Harm Preschooler

You may have read articles reporting how children as young as two have learned to read and advocating that children should be taught to read before entering the first grade. In contrast, you may have read for a number of years, in educational journal—Dr. Garry Meyers als, accounts of the delay of several weeks or months in teaching many first grade children to read. The latter point of view seems to stem from the predominating opinions of the professional leaders in reading methods. Most of them are horrified at the mavericks who would teach reading to preschool children.

It's doubtful whether they will be able to hold the line very long. Some of their own group seem to be wavering.

IT'S MY GUESS that already there has been a marked increase in the number of children in the United States who will have learned to read before entering the first grade, even the kindergarten. Surely in the future there will be fewer first-grade children than today waiting weeks or months before they begin to learn to read.

An increasing number of parents are writing me to say their child four or five or younger can read. Some parents say they can't resist the youngster's eagerness to learn to read.

Some others seem to be skillful at motivating him to want to read. Still others appear to be forcing this leaning on the little child.

It's the third group about which I have concern. Some of these parents will surely do much more harm than good. I can imagine they might build strong dislike for reading, even for all book learning, in the young child.

Even if the preschool child gains pleasure from learning to read, there is some danger that his interests and activities may be diverted from normal play and development. He may strive chiefly for adult approval. His parents may be tempted to show off his more grown-up exploits and try to make of him a miniature adult.

THE MOST important and safest thing any parent can do to prepare the preschool youngster for success at reading in the first grade is to read to him every day from other than school books.

In the rhymes or brief picture book stories a mother reads to her son, he may want to know which words on the page say what. If he does, she should surely tell him gladly.

By and by she might even slowly run her finger under some words and phrases as she reads them. Indeed, the materials from which she often reads to him may prove the best for him to learn to read.

Suppose your child of four or five has never asked you to match the words on a page with what they say. You might be skillful enough to interest him in such matching. The danger is that you might not win the child's interest and cooperation then.

When our daughter was in kindergarten, we discovered that her favorite playmate in the first grade had taught her in this manner to read. Also, some calm and skillful parents help preschool children to learn to identify some or all the letters of the alphabet.

YES MANY children — perhaps most children — could learn to read at home before they are taught to read at school. But it is doubtful if the average parent is skillful enough to do this teaching effectively. Indeed, it may be better for the child to be taught to read too late than too early.

My bulletins "Helping Child at Home in Early Steps of Reading" and "Home Fun With Phonics" may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

Record For Unloading

CLEVELAND (AP) — The port of Cleveland, with its new heavy-lift crane, unloaded a record estimated 221,000 tons of general cargo in the 1963 shipping season on Lake Erie. That compares with 183,000 tons last year and puts Cleveland behind Chicago and Detroit in overseas general cargo on the Great Lakes.

Explosion Rips Hole In Bowling Alley; None Hurt

BELLAIRE, Ohio (AP) — A dynamite explosion ripped away a section of the roof of a Bellaire bowling alley early today, but no one was injured, police said.

The blast tore a 6X14-foot hole in the roof of the Riviera Bowling Lanes on Ohio 7 in Bellaire. About 40 persons were in the bowling alley at the time.

Authorities said the blast occurred over Lanes 15 and 16. Lanes 1 and 2 were the only ones in use. Most of the people in the building were at a snack bar.

The alley is owned by Dr. A. J. Antalis of Powhattan Point and Frank Circosta of Bellaire. Antalis said he knew of no reason for the act.

Circosta owns other bowling alleys, including another one here and others in Bridgeport, Ohio, and Moundsville, W. Va.

4 More Will Assist

In Lorain Vote Probe

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP) — Four more men will be assigned by Secretary of State Ted Brown next week to assist two of his investigators who have uncovered voting irregularities in Lorain's election a month ago. Brown wouldn't disclose the nature of the irregularities.

The investigation has centered mainly on the 5th Ward which has a large Puerto Rican population. Complaints were that persons voted under false names or outside their precincts and that persons representing themselves as election board officials entered polling places to campaign.

Automation Defended By USW's Chief

NEW YORK (AP)—The president of the United Steelworkers of America, David J. McDonald, told a group of industrialists today: "To oppose automation would be to oppose progress and this I shall never do."

But, McDonald said, automation raises problems of job displacement that must be met vigorously if the nation's economy is not to suffer.

His comment contrasts somewhat with the position taken by George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, who called automation a curse.

McDonald was among speakers at the second day of the 68th annual convention of the National Association of Manufacturers.

"The adversaries we are facing in the cold war are automating," McDonald said. "We must not only keep pace with their industrial progress. We must stay far ahead."

Santa and the Haunted House

By LUCRECIE BEALE

Synopsis: The Storyteller began a story for Jeremy, Sissy and Miss Jo. He told about a wicked Bugaboo who was sent by the Queen Fairy to live in Santa Land.

CHAPTER THREE

"What did Nog do?" cried Sissy, rising to her knees. "What did he do?" echoed Miss Jo, pulling on the Storyteller's boot.

"Let him tell," said Jeremy, yanking his sisters down. The Storyteller signed. "What didn't he do!" he said, shaking his head.

"Tell us! Tell us!" Well, for one thing, Nog would sneak into the workshops after the other elves had finished their work. He would unwrap all the toys that had been made that day. Then, while everyone else was sleeping, Nog would have himself the biggest time, pulling off dolls' arms, tearing loose wires on electric trains, hiding pieces of jigsaw puzzles and things like that.

"Why did he do it?" gasped Miss Jo.

"HE WAS just plain mean," said the Storyteller. "He fixed it so that when little children came down Christmas morning and picked up their toys — the toys were broken before they even started to play with them."

"I got a windup truck once," said Jeremy suddenly. "The spring was broken and it never ran once."

"Likely Nog did it," said the Storyteller, nodding.

"But you said Nog wasn't in Santa Land any more," protested Sissy.

"He's not," said the Storyteller. "That's what I'm about to tell you." He pulled a pipe from his pocket, put it in his mouth without lighting it and went on with his story.

After that first Christmas, Santa got a whole trainload of letters complaining about all the broken toys he'd left for children all over the world.

SANTA WAS pretty upset. He called Nog in to see him and he said, "Are you responsible for all this trouble?" "Maybe yes, maybe no," said Nog without a bit of shame. "I don't understand," said Santa. "Why do you hate children?"

"I hate everybody," said Nog and his purple face got even more purple just thinking about how much he hated everybody.

"But why?" asked Santa.

"Because everybody hates me," said Nog.

"I don't hate you," said Santa.

"Oh, said Nog. "It's your business to love people. But I like to hate and I like for everyone to hate me."

Santa just couldn't believe Nog really meant this so he said, "I'm giving you another chance to work in Santa Land." "Pshaw!" said Nog. "If I wanted to I could run Santa Land. I could get rid of you and then I'd run this place my own way. Wouldn't that be something!"

THIS SOUNDED so silly that Santa paid no attention. He said, "I'm putting you to work in the stables. I'm sure you will like the reindeer because animals can't hate."

Well, Nog went down to the stables and it appeared he was doing all right, at least as far as Santa could see. But that

Injuries Slow Beaver Local Cagers; 3 Vets On Hand

Pape Five Plays Host To Tigers

By BOB DUFFY
Review Sports Editor

Injuries have beset John Pape in his first season as head basketball coach at Beaver Local High School.

The former Chester High athlete has a growing sick list as he prepares the Beavers for their 1963-64 opener with Wellsville Saturday night at Beaver Local.

DENNIS HORGER, a 5-11 junior and second leading scorer from last season, will miss better than half of the season after undergoing an operation on his

Nonpareil Officers Set Meeting Tonight

Officers, trustees and committee chairmen of the Blue and White Nonpareil Club are requested to meet tonight at 8:45 at the Travelers Hotel, Ted Burke, president, announced.

knee. He is a very promising cager, but may be sidelined too long to be much help this season. This leaves Pape with three lettermen.

Ron Deering, 6-2 senior, has been slowed by a sprained ankle, but is expected to start Saturday and Norm Gaydos, another starter, got a late start this season after recovering from a football injury.

A few question marks thus remain in the starting lineup as Pape ponders one forward spot and the guard positions.

AT CENTER will be Ben Springer, 6-3 junior. "Springer has come along way and we expect a lot of him this year. He is a good rebounder and shoots well," Pape pointed out.

Deering, "a good shoot and rebounder," will be at one forward with either Roger Vincent, 5-11 senior, or Don Goodman, 6-foot junior, at the other spot. "Vincent hustles all the time and is a good rebounder. And Goodman, although lacking experience, shows a lot of potential."

There is a three-way battle for the guard positions between Ray Artrip 5-10 senior, Gaydos and Jim McLaughlin a 5-8 senior.

PAPE'S lettermen are Deering, McLaughlin, Springer and Horger. Beaver Local also lost another letter winner in Dave Lee, who moved to Arizona.

Other promising juniors who have caught Pape's eye include Mike Lynn, 6-3; Jim Hamilton 5-9; Jody Rice 5-11; Dick Rudibaugh 6-1 and Roy Cooper 5-9. Cooper is another member of the hospital list having fractured his wrist.

AMONG the sophomore hopefuls who will be seeing a lot of action on the reserve squad are Tom Burnett 5-8; Larry Roberts 5-10; John Green 5-10; Arnold McLaughlin 5-9, and Richard Shilling 5-10.

Through graduation Beaver Local lost its leading scorer in George Gaydos, who is now attending Colorado State, and the top rebounder in Gary Berhar, who attends Youngstown University.

OTHER regulars lost from last season include Dave Morse, now at Kenyon College, John Ahluis, Youngstown University, Bill Bigelow and Gary Shaw.

Pape, who was a three - sport star at Chester High, took over the basketball duties this season after serving as assistant coach under Tom McCall for two seasons.

He is given the task of building a winning club after a dismal 1-17 record compiled last season.

ASSISTING Pape is Don Ross of Lancaster, a University of Cincinnati graduate.

Beaver Local lists eight home games this season, with 10 on the road.

Army Wonders—What Will Navy Do This Time?

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
WEST POINT, N.Y. (AP) — Coach Paul Dietzel and his Army football team might be excused for tossing around in their bunks these nights, wondering aloud: "What is Navy going to pull this time?"

In recent years the Midshipmen haven't been content just to show up with apparently superior personnel. (They've won the last four games). They inevitably come up with a gimmick that seems to toss the Cadets for a loop.

It could happen again Saturday when the Middies from Annapolis and the Black Knights from West Point clash in their 64th meeting at Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium.

Wayne Hardin, the red-haired Navy coach, seems to get a puckish delight out of springing nerve-jarring tricks which are kept in closest secrecy until just before the kickoff.

In 1959, the game that started the current streak. Hardin installed a brand-new formation for the Army game — a formation calling for wide flankers and plays not used all year.

Score: Navy 43, Army 12. The next year — 1960 — Army was expecting some more of the same skullduggery. The Knights were ready for anything — and were waiting for it. Hardin suspected this, so he didn't change a play. The other shoe didn't drop.

Score: Navy 17, Army 12.

In 1961, Navy warmed up in regular attire. Then, just before the kickoff, the Middies loped onto the field with their "Flaming Mamie" helmets. If the Army team was stunned, the 100-

000 spectators were half-blinded. The helmets were painted with luminous aircraft paint — a garish orange color. On the sleeves of their jerseys, Navy men had inscribed: "Beat Army."

Score: Navy 13, Army 7. Last year, the Middies had an answer for Army's celebrated Chinese Bandits, the defensive unit plan which Dietzel had employed so effectively at Louisiana State.

On the front of every Navy helmet were inscribed the words: "Beat" and on the other word "Army."

Nothing very tricky about that, except the words were inscribed in Chinese.

Score: Navy 34, Army 14.

Fifth-ranked Wichita, NIT champion Providence and powerful Louisville had trouble finding the basket, but it was Notre Dame that was seeing double.

Wichita, Providence and Louisville were victims of shocking upsets Wednesday night while Notre Dame ran into a pair of twin terrors — Tom and Dick Van Arsdale of Indiana, who combined for 74 points in a 108-102 victory over the Irish.

Wichita became the first member of the top ten to lose a game as two foul shots by Steve Traden clinched a 75-74 victory for unheralded Texas Western. Providence bowed to Assumption, Mass., 83-80 and Louisville was jolted 78-65 by Eastern Kentucky.

Two other top ten teams saw action — second-ranked NYU and third-ranked Cincinnati — and both had difficulty. Barry Kramer and Happy Hairston led the Violets from behind for a 82-65 victory over Cornell and the Bearcats stalled in the closing minutes to hold off Miami, Ohio, 60-56.

In other top games, sophomore Steve Renko, a football quarterback, threw in 10 key points as Kansas whipped Arkansas 73-60. Stan Luechtfeld dropped in two foul shots to clinch St. Louis' 81-78 decision over Illinois. Purdue's Mel Garland hit for 27 points in an 86-80 victory over Detroit and Virginia Tech handed Mississippi State its first defeat at home in three years, 93-77, with Howard Pardue scoring 32 points.

Indiana had difficulty with Notre Dame throughout but finally pulled ahead after 6-foot-8 Larry Jesewitz fouled out. Jon McGlockin's basket put the Hoosiers ahead 86-85 and the Van Arsdale twins took it from there. Dick collected 42 points, Tom 34 as they hit on 29 of 53 shots. NYU had difficulty getting its fast-break patterns working smoothly and trailed Cornell by as many as seven points before Kramer and Hairston triggered the Violets' second half come-59 victory over Princeton, sophomore Henry Finkel scored 22 in Dayton's 74-48 walloping of California at Davis and Ernie Thompson and Levern Tart each collected 25 for Bradley in a 101-70 thumping of Idaho State.

Detroit Trades Bunning To Phils In 4-Way Deal

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Right-hander Jim Bunning, who had fallen into disfavor in Detroit, was traded to the Philadelphia Phillies today in a four-player deal—the first interleague transaction of the year.

The Tigers got outfielder Don Demeter and right-hander Jack Hamilton and sent catcher Gus Triandos to Philadelphia along with Bunning.

It was the fourth trade of the winter baseball meetings and the second for the Tigers in recent weeks. They traded outfielder Rocky Colavito and pitcher Bob Anderson to the Kansas City Athletics last month for second baseman Jerry Lumpe and pitchers Dave Wickersham and Ed Rakow. Detroit Manager Charlie Dressen said he'll put Demeter in centerfield and move 34-year-old Bill Bruton from center to left. Al Kaline, of course, will be in right.

Triandos, a right-handed hitter, is expected to play behind Clay Dalrymple, who bats left-handed. Bunning, who won 20 games in 1957, and pitched a no-hitter against Boston in 1958, lost 13 of his 25 decisions last season. It was only his second losing season in the last eight years. His career record is 118-87. Bunning, 32, admitted last summer he and Dressen didn't see eye to eye. Dressen said before the season ended that Bunning and Colavito might be traded.

Miami Is Pushing For Title Match

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Is there a chance that the projected Sonny Liston-Cassius Clay fight may not be held in Las Vegas after all? Could it be that Miami is under serious consideration?

Las Vegas backers, who might be called unofficial exponents of positive thinking, profess to see no such threat.

Jack Nilon, advisor of heavyweight champion Liston, flew to Miami from Philadelphia to meet today or Friday with Bill MacDonald. MacDonald, who sponsored the last Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight title fight, reportedly has offered a $625,000 guaranteed gate if the Liston-Clay fight is held in Miami.

But Ash Resnick, Las Vegas hotel executive and friend of Liston, showed no apparent concern. He said Nilon was just "doing Miami the courtesy of looking at its offer." He added: "I still feel we'll get the fight."

Resnick said Jackie Gaughan, an owner of the El Cortez Hotel here, could personally back a $400,000 guarantee.

"A $400,000 guarantee here is better than $625,000 in Miami," Resnick argued. His reference was to the fact the Miami area would have to be blacked out for television if the Florida city got the fight.

MacDonald, reached Wednesday night at his Miami Beach home, was also fairly confident. "I think we have a good chance to land the fight," he said. "We can give it the promotion that will add prestige to the boxing business."

"We have the best possible Convention Hall, parking, hotels, housing, police protection and transportation. Our atmosphere is clean—the very best."

And at Louisville, Ky., Bill Faversham, Clay's manager, maintained that no site had been selected. "Nothing has been settled," he said.

Kelso Named Top Horse For 4th Straight Year

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP)—To the surprise of nobody, Kelso from Mrs. Richard C. du Pont's Bohemia Stable was named today as America's champion thoroughbred race horse for the fourth straight year by the Thoroughbred Racing Associations.

Kelso also was the chosen Horse of the Year in a poll conducted by Turf and Sports Digest, completing his sweep of the balloting.

The swift-running gelding, who needs only $168,167 to pass Round Table as the world's leading money winning horse, began his reign as a 3-year-old in 1960. He was the unanimous choice of the TRA Board of Selection this year.

His earnings of $569,762 this season brought his life-time bankroll to $1,581,702 for 31 victories in 45 starts.

Kelso's only out-of-the-money performance this year was his debut in the seven-furlong Palm Beach Handicap at Hialeah Park, when he was fourth back of Ridan, Jaipur and Merry Ruler.

He went on to win nine races, carrying as much as 134 pounds under handicap conditions. At one stage he put together a string of eight straight stakes victories, including an unprecedented fourth straight victory in the two miles of the Jockey Club Gold Cup.

Navy Needs 25 Points To Win Scoring Title

NEW YORK (AP)—Navy already has scored more points than any Annapolis team before, but needs 25 points against Army Saturday to take the national scoring title for the first time.

NCAA statistics today show Navy with a 32.6-point average in nine games. Utah State has 31.7 for second, but has finished the season. The Middies need 25 points to stay on top.

Tulsa has broken the record of 176 pass completions set by Stanford in 1959, with the game with Louisville Saturday left to play.

Navy leads in passing accuracy with .655 per cent, better than the .612 record of Washington State in 1958.

Texas Western, with one game left, leads in pass defense. Only 90 passes have been thrown against Texas Western all season.

The total of 315 field goals kicked is already a record, surpassing the 277 of 1961.

Ex-Pro Cager Named To Youth Commission

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Joe Roberts, who played last year with Syracuse of the National Basketball Association, has been named chief recreation program specialist for the Ohio Youth Commission.

Roberts has been employed by the Columbus Board of Education since last February. He is a graduate of Ohio State University, and at one time was inter-service program officer at the Training Institute of Central Ohio, state center for juvenile delinquents.

Youth Commission Chairman Wayne Fogle also announced Wednesday the appointment of Al Holloway of Oberlin as superintendent of the Mohican Youth Camp at Loudonville. Holloway, a graduate of Ashland College, has been teaching in the Cleveland public school system.

Georgia Grid Coach Quits; Name Dooley

ATHENS, Ga. (AP)—Vince Joseph (Vince) Dooley, 31-year-old freshman coach from Auburn, has taken over as head football coach at Georgia in a move to get the Bulldogs back on the winning road after three losing seasons.

Dooley succeeds Johnny Griffith, who compiled a 10-1 record during three years of unrest in the Georgia athletic department. Griffith resigned Wednesday, effective Jan. 31.

Dooley is the second young coach to be named head of a Southeastern Conference football team in three days. Douglas Dickey, 31, an assistant on Coach Frank Broyles' Arkansas staff, was selected Monday to replace Jim McDonald at Tennessee.

The Georgia athletic board accepted Griffith's resignation Wednesday, unanimously approved Dooley's selection and signed him to a four-year contract. His salary was not announced.

A native of Mobile, Ala., Dooley was quarterback of Auburn's 1953 Gator Bowl team coached by Ralph Jordan. After serving in the Marines, he returned to Auburn in 1956 as a backfield assistant. He has been freshman coach since 1961.

Griffith, 39, said he has not decided whether to accept an offer to remain with the university in the physical education department.

Westgate Eighth Grade Tops East

Westgate's eighth grade squad handed East Junior High a 35-24 setback Wednesday.

Lowe's 11 points sparked the winners while McKinnon found the range for nine. Pridemore with seven and Christian's six markers paced East Junior.

Westgate's ninth grade unit opens its season today at 4:30 with East Palestine on the West End floor.

Smith Happy On Returning To Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians' "man of the year" in 1955—Alphonse Smith—says it's going to be nice to get back to Cleveland where he played outfield and infield for five years before he was traded to the Chicago White Sox in 1957.

Smith, who will be starting his 12th season in the American League, was acquired by the Tribe Wednesday from Baltimore, which got Willie Kirkland and had to put about $25,000 in the package with Smith.

Kirkland, who has a .250 batting average for six major league seasons, hit 63 home runs in the last three years with the Indians. Smith had 54 in the same span and thinks his pace will pick up because the Stadium here is better for his right-hand power. He thought Chicago and Baltimore were tough parks for him.

Al probably will be used as a part-time right fielder, with Vic Davalillo in center and Leon Wagner in left.

VanderKelen Named NFL's Back Of Week

MINNEAPOLIS — ST. PAUL Ron VanderKelen, Minnesota Vikings sub quarterback who had his biggest day in pro football last Sunday, said today he was "obviously surprised" at being named The Associated Press Player of the Week in the National Football League.

"It was quite a thing and I'm very honored," said the unassuming Vandy, who led the Vikings to a 17-17 tie with the Chicago Bears.

"I'm very glad I could help the team," continued the rookie signal caller, who took over when Frank Tarkenton was knocked out early in the game.

The youthful quarterback connected on five of nine pass attempts for 116 yards, including a 53-yard touchdown toss to Gordon Smith.

Schirach, 56, is due for release in 1966.

County Patrolman, 52 Killed In Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP) — A car struck and killed an Allegheny County patrolman early today on Pittsburgh's North Side, police reported.

According to police, Fuhrer had just left a friend's auto at an intersection when he was struck by the other auto. The operator was identified by police as Edward O. Zech, 27, of nearby Bellevue.

4-H News

Thirty-seven Columbiana County Junior Leadership 4-H Club members completed their projects for 1963, according to Bob Lewis, assistant 4-H agent.

To receive this recognition, a junior leader must have assisted the local 4-H Advisor, taken active leadership in club activities and helped other members with their projects.

These 4-H members must have also participated in the countywide junior leadership activities and attended a high percentage of the monthly meetings. To be a junior leader, a 4-H member must have successfully completed three years of 4-H work, Lewis said.

The Elkton Merry Maids 4-H Club held its annual Christmas banquet at the Elkrun Grange Hall Monday evening and mothers were guests.

Mrs. Perry Arter showed slides and gave a talk about her trip to Hawaii and Terri Eells talk danced.

A gift exchange followed.

Talk About Kennedy Ousts Muslim Aide

NEW YORK (AP) — Elijah Muhammad, leader of the Black Muslim movement, has suspended his heir apparent, Minister Malcolm X Shabazz, for statements he made about the assassination of President Kennedy.

Malcolm X told a Black Muslim rally Sunday the assassination was an instance of "the chickens coming home to roost."

"Being an old farm boy myself," Malcolm X said, "chickens coming home to roost never did make me sad, they've always made me glad."

Muhammad said Malcolm X did not speak for him or the "Nation of Islam."

"We, with the world, are very shocked at the assassination of our President," Muhammad said.

Cider, Not Sickness, Gets Local Man Down

Central Station firemen rushed a resuscitator to Central Ave. early Wednesday afternoon after receiving a report of a man lying unconscious on the street — but it turned out the man was a victim of cider, not sickness.

After it was learned the Dewey Ave. Ext. man was intoxicated, not ill, Patrolman Orin C. Smith took him to jail. The man drew a suspended fine of $10 and costs when he pleaded guilty to the intoxication charge this morning before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff.

Queried by the court, the man said he had been drinking cider.

In the call to firemen at 12:50 p. m., a householder said the man apparently fainted and had been lying on the street for two hours.

Artificial Lake Idea Advanced By Federal Unit

CLEVELAND (AP)—The idea of a 15-mile-long artificial lake running south into Summit County near the Ohio Turnpike has been advanced by the recently created Federal Bureau of Outdoor Recreation. And Harold W. Groth, director of the Cleveland Metropolitan Park System, doesn't think much of the idea, which is still in a sort of pre-preliminary report stage. Roman H. Keonings, regional director of the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation, has submitted the suggestion to the U. S. of Engineers district office in Buffalo for further study. Keonings said the 2,800-acre lake along the Cuyahoga River Valley from the mouth of Tinkers Creek southward to Peninsula would cost about $15 million. He envisioned it as "a tremendous recreation attraction" for the Cleveland-Akron complex, capable of drawing 10 million visitors a year. Flood control is also a major objective.

Groth, from whom Keonings sought comment, thought the total cost would be five times the $15 million figure. As projected the reservoir backing up behind a 40-foot dam near Tinkers Creek would back up water over 600 acres of metropolitan park land—400 acres of it in Brecksville. 60 Workers Recalled MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—The Armco Steel Corp. is continuing the recall of laid-off workers. Sixty workers were recalled Wednesday, and Works Manager Don S. Holstein said the total for the last two weeks has been 198. Want ad? Call 385-4545
